Shore Native To Probe CIA

CHESTERTOWN, Md. — Dr. William O. Baker, a former Kent County resident and a Washington College graduate, has been named by President Kennedy to the Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board. The board is the new watchdog committee over the nation's foreign intelligence.

Dr. Baker is vice president of research for the Bell Telephone Laboratories. He graduated from Washington College here in 1935 and was granted the honorary degree of Doctor of Science by the college in 1957.

The advisory board to which Dr. Baker has been named will conduct a continuing review of the Central Intelligence Agency and other executive departments in the foreign intelligence field.
